NAAC Appeal for Metric 5.3.2

5.3.2 Presence of an active Student Council & representation of students on academic & administrative bodies/committees of the institution.

Related Observation in PT Report:

Each class has a Class Committee and co-curricular and extra-curricular activities are organised by various clubs and respective Technical Associations. Formation of a formal representative Student Council for student experience in leadership not visible.

HEI Appeal: The college has established numerous student-led clubs and organizations spanning various interests such as cultural activities, technical skills, sports, arts, and social outreach. Each of these clubs is headed by students themselves, allowing them to take ownership of planning, organizing, and executing various events and activities throughout the academic year. This structure ensures that students are at the forefront of decision-making processes and are given ample opportunities to exercise leadership and teamwork.
